Medieval Britain Castles, Cannons & Crowns

Cultural & Historic Landmarks from London to Edinburgh

May 16-29, 2023

Medieval Britain - a time of castles and cathedrals, knights and archers, clans and kilts, pipes and cannons ... and war.

Who would wear the crown? Mary Queen of Scots or Elizabeth? Charles or Cromwell? Lancaster or York? Or Arthur? Did Robin Hood really exist? Was Macbeth a real person or did Shakespeare invent him? And Merlin - was he real or "such stuff as dreams are made of?"

Britain is a land of fact, myth and magic. Stonehenge, Guy Fawkes, Magna Carta, Sherlock Homes, Hadrian's Wall, Loch Ness, The Tower of London - each have their place in this storied history.

Join us in London as we set out for the Channel coast, then turn northward through Stratford, York and Edinburgh, and all the way up into the mystical Scottish Highlands ... fourteen glorious days, bringing Britain's fabled past to life.

*Culloden • Bannockburn • Hampton Court Palace
Eastnor Castle • Scone Palace • Glenfinnan
Stonehenge • Hadrian's Wall • Magna Carta
Fountains Abbey • Eilean Donan Castle*

INCREDIBLE HISTORY, BROUGHT TO LIFE BY HISTORIANS & LOCAL GUIDES!

ITINERARY

Day 1 - Tuesday May 16

Depart from Canada for your overnight transatlantic flight to London, except for those who may choose to depart sooner to extend their trip or those who are meeting the tour in the UK.

Day 2 - Wednesday May 17

Upon arrival in London you will have the morning and afternoon to enjoy and explore at your leisure. London is a city of history and monuments waiting to be discovered. In the early evening you will gather with your fellow travelers for your Welcome Dinner. Overnight London. [D]

Day 3 - Thursday May 18

You'll begin your trip with a visit to one of the most impressive of all medieval palaces - Hampton Court. This was the seat of power of the Tudor King Henry VIII of the 1500s and survives as one of the most stunning of all royal residences. After lunch we travel to the south coast of England, to visit the Portsmouth Historic Dockyard and a tour of Lord Nelson's flag ship - HMS Victory - launched in 1765. Overnight Southampton. [B,L]

Day 4 - Friday May 19

In the morning we travel to the historic UNESCO World Heritage Site of Stonehenge, a pre-historic marvel built ~2500 BCE. We travel into nearby Salisbury to enjoy lunch, with time to visit the marvelous cathedral and catch a glimpse of the Magna Carta, then later we carry onward to the historic district of Warwickshire. Overnight Stratford-Upon-Avon. [B,L]

Day 5 - Saturday May 20

We are headed for Bosworth Field, to see where Richard III, the last Plantagenet king of England, fell in battle. It would mark the beginning of the Tudor dynasty. In the afternoon we make a tour of the stunning Belvoir Castle, the ancestral home of the Duke of Rutland for almost a thousand years - a masterpiece of architecture and design and one of the finest examples of Regency architecture in the country. Overnight Lincoln. [B,L]

Day 6 - Sunday May 21

Day Six begins with a drive into the forested countryside of England. We take a guided tour of a famous English country manor house, Haddon Hall. The house has been described as one of the most complete and important houses of the period. Other more lavish castles and manors dot the nearby county, but the smaller Haddon Hall is truly a unique and beautiful structure. In the mid-afternoon we drift into the back roads to visit the battlefield at Towton, considered "the largest and bloodiest battle ever fought on English soil" as part of the Wars of the Roses of the 15th century. Overnight York. [B,L]

Day 7 - Monday May 22

The Norman Invasion of 1066 was preceded by a great battle, which we'll discuss at Stamford Bridge in the morning. Our journey then finds us amongst the ruins of the enchanting Fountains Abbey, hidden away in a valley. Following lunch we explore the imposing Middleham Castle, childhood home of King Richard III, before winding our way to northern England for the evening. Overnight Newcastle. [B,L]

Day 8 - Tuesday May 23

We begin the day at yet another UNESCO Site - the Roman ruins at Hadrian's Wall, followed by lunch in the valley. Having stopped at the border we cross into Scotland and head north to see Melrose Abbey. The day ends in the Kingdom of Alba ... Scotland! Overnight Edinburgh. [B,L]

Day 9 - Wednesday May 24

Stirling is the focus of our day. Stirling Castle was the key to the kingdom of Scotland, dominating a vast volcanic rock above the river Forth at the meeting point between Lowlands and Highlands. We also visit nearby at the Battlefield of Bannockburn of 1314, and also Stirling Bridge - historic sites which both fall within view of the castle. Amazing battles took place here, charting the course of Scotland. Overnight Stirling (Dunblane). [B,L]

Day 10 - Thursday May 25

In the morning we walk to another small monument, marking a dark chapter in Scottish history - the Massacre of Glencoe. Our local guide tells the tale as no one else can. After lunch we travel a short distance north to Glenfinnan, a small spot with a very important place in Scottish history. It is here that Bonnie Prince Charlie and the Jacobite Uprising of 1745 began. A monument marks where the prince came ashore, to begin an endeavor which would end in complete failure at Culloden. Overnight Inverness. [B,L]

Day 11 - Friday May 26

Day Eleven is steeped in history as we explore the historic battlefield at Culloden Moor, where in 1745 the Jacobite Uprising came to a violent end. Those who follow the television series Outlander will recall this famous battle. During our journey we stop to see if Loch Ness will reveal any monsters! Today we also drive out to the west coast to visit the most iconic of all Scottish landmarks - Eilean Donan Castle. Overnight Inverness. [B,L]

Day 12 - Saturday May 27

We journey south on the homeward leg of our trip, making our first visit of the day to Dalwhinnie Distillery for a little Scotch tasting. Later we take a tour of the incredible Scone Palace - the place where successive Scottish kings were crowned through the centuries and thus a place of immense historic significance for over 1000 years. We'll dine in the palace for lunch. Our tour concludes with a return to the capital city. Overnight Edinburgh. [B,L]

Day 13 - Sunday May 28

On this final day, explore Edinburgh at your leisure. Or, if you choose, board the coach to Perth to enjoy the day at the Blair Atholl Highland Games! In the early evening we'll gather together and head out into the heart of the city, for our Farewell Dinner. [B,D]

Day 14 - Monday May 29

Return flight from Edinburgh/Glasgow, except for those who may choose to extend their stay or travel onward to further destinations. [B]

Itinerary and hotels are subject to change prior to departure. Minor variances are possible during the actual tour based on the need to adapt to circumstances we may encounter.

London

With Big Ben, the River Thames, the Tower of London, and Buckingham Palace, London is an incredibly exciting and cosmopolitan city which offers travelers so much to see and discover. Tower Bridge, Westminster Abbey and the Houses of Parliament are just the beginning of your discovery of this amazing capital city.

Battle of Hastings

One of the most famous battles ever. King Harold II of England is defeated by the Norman forces of William the Conqueror at the Battle of Hastings in 1066. At the end of the bloody, all-day battle, Harold was killed – shot in the eye with an arrow, according to legend – and his forces were destroyed. He was the last Anglo-Saxon king and 'England' would never be the same.

Stonehenge

It's beginnings date back to roughly 3000 BCE and it is easily one of the most recognizable cultural landmarks in the world. But just who built it? How? And why? The lands, once owned by King Henry VIII, are now protected and archaeological work continues at the site to attempt to unlock its ancient secrets.

The Romans

With the Roman Conquest - starting in 43 AD and lasting almost 400 years - came the first written records of England's history. Julius Caesar had paid earlier visits to Britain in 55 and 54 BC but it wasn't until the Emperor Claudius that Britain, as far north as Hadrian's Wall, was conquered. Our visit to Vindolanda, one of the Roman forts along the wall, is one of the tour highlights. As we peer into the mists of the north we can ponder on the 9th Imperial Roman Legion that marched out of Newcastle in AD 120 to subdue the Scots - and was never heard from again.

Battle of Stirling Bridge

Way back in 1297 Stirling is the scene for what would become a famous battle which echoes through the centuries. The English, far superior in numbers, should have had an easy time of it but quick thinking on the part of the Scots, and a narrow wooden bridge, would prove their undoing.

York

Founded by the Romans in 71 CE it has been the backdrop to major political events for its 2,000 years of existence. York Minster Cathedral is one of the largest in northern Europe and the Great East Window (finished in 1408) is the largest expanse of medieval stained glass in the world.

Edinburgh

The Old Town and New Town together are listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. It is a city of culture, learning and fascinating history. Edinburgh Castle, Holyrood Palace and the church of St. Giles on The Royal Mile are but a few of the historic sites which attract millions of visitors each year to this gem of the United Kingdom.

Single Malt Scotch

The Scots have been distilling whisky for centuries. The earliest written record of whisky production is an entry on the 1494 Exchequer Rolls, which reads "Eight bolls of malt to Friar John Cor, by order of the King, wherewith to make "aqua vitae." Today single malt Scotch is in demand around the world.

Battle of Culloden

On 16 April 1746, on Drumossie Moor overlooking Inverness, the royal army led by the Duke of Cumberland (son of King George II) annihilated the much smaller army led by Prince Charles Edward Stuart. This most futile of Jacobite battles was over in an hour and marked the end of the clans in Scotland. Thousands were slaughtered, and the bloody aftermath went on for weeks.

Battle of Bannockburn

On 23 and 24 June 1314, Robert the Bruce faced King Edward II at Bannockburn, near Stirling. The Scots army might have been outnumbered almost three to one but 'The Bruce' sent King Edward homeward ... "to think again", and became immortalized in Scottish history.

All contracts with Liberation Tours are made subject to the terms of these booking conditions. The invalidity of any provisions herein shall not affect the validity of any other provisions. The agreement shall be construed as though the invalid provision was not contained herein and was replaced with an enforceable provision as similar as possible to the original provision. Travel is personal and each individual’s goals and experiences may differ. Liberation Tours will not be bound by, or liable for, any description, photograph, representation or warranty made by or provided by any independent third-party sales representative, travel agent, or other person or entity relating to any holiday offered by Liberation Tours.

Security is a major concern to all of us and the situation globally is constantly changing. Events around the world, coupled with the travel advisories issued by various governments, may at times necessitate changes to the accommodations and itinerary or even trip cancellation. You must accept risks involved in travel to any country that may experience security difficulties and accept responsibility for your own travel decisions.

A deposit is required at the time of booking, following which you will receive an invoice confirming your reservation. Balance of payment is required on or before the Final Payment Date as outlined on your invoice. Payment in full is required for bookings made after the Final Payment Date. If you cancel your booking at any time, for any reason, all payments made are non-refundable.

Taxes and fees are subject to change without notice and will be confirmed at time of booking. Any additional fees charged by the airlines such as baggage handling, seat selections, and/or any other services are the sole responsibility of the traveler. Additional air-related restrictions apply.

Liberation Tours reserves the right to cancel your reservation prior to the Final Payment Date, due to lack of subscription, Covid-related matters or other, in which case all payments shall be fully refunded.

All prices are in Canadian dollars unless specified otherwise.

Every effort is made to deliver the itinerary of a given tour as outlined on the website and within the published literature, however due to circumstances beyond our control (including but not limited to weather, construction, passenger illness, mechanical breakdown, civil unrest, etc.) Liberation Tours reserves the right to alter the itinerary by substituting where possible alternate venues and/or sightseeing locales so as to make the best possible accommodation under the circumstances.

Certain activities may not be precisely as described or may not be available due to seasonality or weather conditions. We will try to notify you of changes. If your enjoyment may be diminished by such limitations, please check with us before making a reservation.

During local or national holidays, certain facilities such as museums, sightseeing trips and shopping may be limited or unavailable. In such instances itinerary changes are made by Liberation Tours seeking to reduce inconvenience to guests. Such changes are deemed not to be a major change to the itinerary, and no compensation will be payable to guests. Holidays, closing days and other circumstances may necessitate a change of the day of the week for scheduled regional meals, sightseeing or other activities. If you feel your enjoyment might be diminished by any of these circumstances please check with us before selecting a specific departure date.

All tour itineraries are subject to change or cancellation without prior notice. Tour managers and/or historians designated for a particular tour are subject to substitution where deemed necessary or as may be necessary based on availability.

hotel accommodation

Prices are per person, based on two persons sharing a room with private bath or shower. Single and triple rooms may be available on select tours, in limited quantities. A single room will require the add-on fee of a single supplement. Triple rooms will come at a small discount. Triple rooms will often feature one double bed plus a fold-away bed or similar. Three persons may find these arrangements small, with restricted space for baggage and the like. Triple rooms are typically best suited to two adults plus a child.

Every effort is made to reserve twin-bed rooms; however, on some occasions rooms with one double bed may be the only option available. These rooms will be allocated to single travellers and couples first; other rooms may feature a single bed and rollaway bed, murphy bed or sleeper sofa. Liberation Tours shall not be responsible or liable for any claims or issues arising out of the shared rooming.

Hotel room sizes, standards, facilities and services provided may vary from country to country and region to region and are often local in style.

All hotels listed on the itinerary have been pre-booked at time of publishing. Whereas Liberation Tours will do its utmost to prevent our pre-booked hotels from 'booking out' we cannot accept responsibility for this possibility. Similarly, there may be occasions where Liberation Tours is not able to secure our contract hotels due to conferences, sporting events etc. in which case a hotel of similar standard will be booked. Liberation Tours reserves the right to accommodate within 80 km of locations listed on the attached itinerary.

Hotel Frequent Traveller program points are not earned with hotels on Liberation Tours trips.

Many hotels are 100 % smoke-free, including all guest rooms, restaurants, lounges, meeting rooms and public spaces. Smoking in a non-smoking room will result in a fine. All coaches are non-smoking.

motor coach

Toilets aboard the coach may be affected by higher altitude or extreme weather conditions such as freezing temperatures and for the comfort of those on board the motorcoach the toilets may have to be closed. Occasionally the toilets will reach capacity due to heavy use, and may need to be closed. In these circumstances, additional rest breaks will be incorporated into the itinerary.

Complimentary Wi-Fi service is available on most coaches. The Wi-Fi uses the cellular phone network and as a result the connection will be slower than standard broadband and at times may not be available. W-Fi may also not be available on temporary coach services such as airport or restaurant transfers, where an alternate coach is sometimes used. Audio and video streaming is not available using motorcoach Wi-Fi, and there are daily limits to the amount of data allowed. Additional data may be available, at an extra cost.

We employ a seating rotation program whereby all clients are shuffled through the coach to new seats daily, thereby ensuring everyone has an opportunity to be seated in different areas of the coach and also providing for different neighbours across the aisle. Requests to be seated in a fixed or preferred location will respectfully be declined.

tips / gratuities

Tips and gratuities are included in your tour package, covering your coach drivers, on-board agents, local guides, hotel porters, restaurant servers during included meals, and local specialists. Tips are not included for any non-group activities such as local taxis, meals not included in the itinerary, and the like.

Liberation Tours does not provide personal devices (such as wheelchairs, hearing aids or prescription eye glasses) or services of a personal nature (such as eating, toileting or dressing).
